

NEW

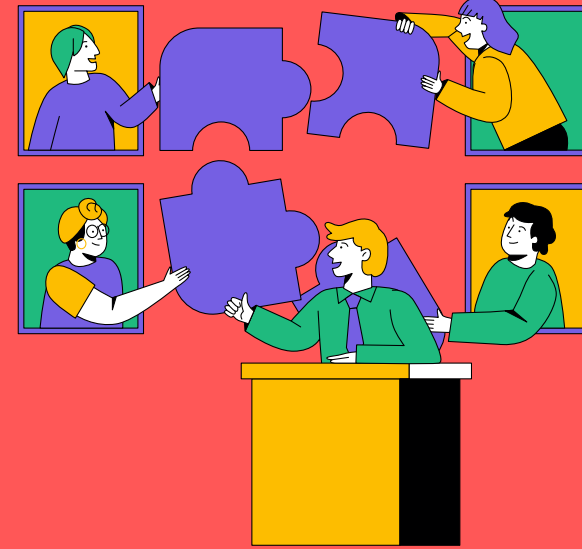

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN PSYCHOSOCIAL LEADERSHIP IN SERIOUS ILLNESS CARE

Accredited by Singapore Association for Social Workers

WHAT IS?

- The first local culturally adapted leadership programme designed specifically for psychosocial professionals working with seriously ill patients and their families.
- Equip learners with competencies in biopsychosocial-spiritual assessment, advanced psychotherapeutic interventions, culturally attuned communication, ethical reasoning, and interdisciplinary leadership.

4 COURSES

- Management of Clinical Complexities in Serious Illness
- Cross-Cultural Psychosocial Leadership and Ethical Complexities in Serious Illness
- Advanced Practice in Psychotherapeutic Interventions in Serious Illness
- Clinical Supervision, Mentorship and Team Management in Practice

EXPERT FACULTY Local & Overseas

Multidisciplinary specialist faculty in palliative care, psychosocial oncology, clinical psychology, social work, bioethics, and leadership.

Overseas faculty includes:

- Prof Amy Chow, Hong Kong University
- Dr Susan Gerbino, New York University
- Dr Linda Lausell Bryant, New York University
- Dr Carolyn Ng, Portland Institute
- Dr Ben Wienstein, Chiangmai University

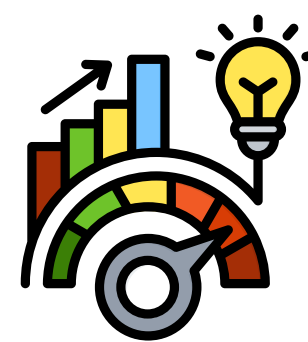

HIGHLIGHTS

Psychosocial Leadership Focus

1:1 Mentorship and group supervision

Capstone project to impact workplace

STUDY AWARD

- Competitive LCPC Study Award of up to 75% available for eligible participants in the inaugural run!
- HCPs in the community care sector can apply for AIC CCMDA for funding up to 90%.

READY TO BE A LEADER IN THE FIELD?

REGISTRATION OPEN NOW!

If you are a Healthcare Professional with at least 5 years of working experience and are interested in holistic care for persons with serious illness and their families, join us!

Scan for more info